

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: September 2026

Company: Brannet

At Brannet, we are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This policy explains when and why we collect personal information, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others, and how we keep it secure.

1. Information We Collect

We obtain information about you when you use our website, for example, when you contact us about our products and services. The personal information we collect might include your name, address, email address, phone number, and information regarding what pages are accessed and when.

2. How Your Information is Used

We may use your information to:

- Process a quote or order you have submitted.
- Carry out our obligations arising from any contracts entered into by you and us.
- Seek your views or comments on the services we provide.
- Notify you of changes to our services.

3. Who Has Access to Your Information?

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties. We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes. We may pass your information to our third-party service providers (such as hosting providers and payment processors) for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf.

4. Security

When you give us personal information, we take steps to ensure that it is treated securely. Non-sensitive details (your email address, etc.) are transmitted normally over the Internet, and this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

5. Your Rights (UK GDPR)

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), you have the right to access the personal data we hold about you, request corrections, or request the deletion of your data. To exercise these rights, please contact us at our provided email address.
